

GREENSHEET // MARCH 29, 2022

Kairos Blanket Exercise

DATE: March 31

Do you care about reconciliation and right relationships with the Indigenous peoples of Canada? You are invited to join a powerful educational exercise to help us better understand the past and the present experience of Indigenous peoples. Developed in collaboration with Indigenous Elders, Knowledge Keepers and educators, the Kairos Blanket Exercise (KBE) is an interactive and experiential teaching tool that explores the historic and contemporary relationship between Indigenous and non-Indigenous peoples in the land we now know as Canada. This workshop will be conducted as a talking circle. Come and be part of the conversation.

LOCATION: Reconciliation Pole at UBC (2373-2425 Main Mall) - near the Forestry Building.

This event is co-hosted by InterVarsity Christian Fellowship and Healing at the Wounding Place. Find out more information at www.redclover.ca

2022 Interface Lectures: Niels Henrik Gregersen

DATE: March 29-31

Join us March 29–31, in person or online, for the 2022 Interface lecture series in theology and science. We're delighted to welcome Niels Henrik Gregersen, the University of Copenhagen's Professor of Systematic Theology, as our lecturer.

Dr. Gregersen, a well-known writer and speaker in the field of science and religion, will speak about Jesus, suffering, and evolution; the incarnation and models of ecology; and a theology of disasters.

Tear Fund: Opportunities for summer internship positions

See <https://tearfund.ca/internships-and-summer-students/>

All positions are paid and tackle challenging and meaningful projects.

Anyone interested is welcome to reach out to Matthew Schroeder, Director of Marketing for Tearfund Canada directly, if they have any questions.